

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? ...No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us...

For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

~ Romans 8:35-39

~BE STILL, MY SOUL~

Be still, my soul; the Lord is on thy side
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain;
Leave to thy God to order and provide.
In every change He faithful will remain.
Be still, my soul; Thy best, Thy heavenly Friend
Thro' thorny ways leads to a joyful end.

Be still, my soul; Thy God doth undertake
To guide the future as He has the past.
Thy hope, Thy confidence let nothing shake;
All now mysterious shall be bright at last.
Be still, my soul; the waves and winds still know
His voice Who ruled them while He dwelt below.

Be still, my soul; Thy hour is hastening on
When we shall be forever with the Lord,
When disappointments, grief and fear are gone.
Sorrow forgot love's purest joys restored.
Be still, my soul; when change and tears are past,
All safe and blessed we shall meet at last. (by Katharine Von Schlegel)
